

PAUL JABOULET AÎNÉ

La Croix des Vignes Saint-Joseph Rouge
2021

92 Points

Still youthful, but this already has an expressive stony personality plus a slew of wild herb and licorice aromas. For this appellation the tannins are surprisingly polished, the minerality building at the finish. A cuvee from two steep sites in this appellation on granite soils.

Stuart Pigott - March 15, 2024

