

epicurious.com

From the unmatched beauty of an aged Chambolle-Musigny to the freshness of Chablis, wines from the Burgundy region of France are some of the world's best (and my personal favorites). Burgundies are ideal for holiday gift giving, to pair with traditional turkey or ham feasts, or simply to sip fireside.

Affordable Winner:

LOUIS JADOT
Côte de Nuits-Villages
"Le Vaucrain" 2005

Jadot is one of the most familiar and highest quality producers in Burgundy. Their silky, earthy, expressive Vaucrain is worth twice the price.

Leslie Sbrocco November 2007