MAISON LOUIS JADOT CÔTE D'OR BURGUNDIES

Griotte-Chambertin Grand Cru 2010

91-93 POINTS

Moderately saturated medium red. Lovely perfumed lift to the aromas of red cherry, crushed stone and rose petal; I would have picked this blind as coming from Chambolle-Musigny. Not the last word in depth but vibrant, high-pitched and precise, with a saline complexity to its red fruit and floral flavors. Finishes juicy, bright and long, with an impression of elevated acidity. Assistant winemaker Frederic Barnier told me that "this old-school grower never picks late."
