MAISON LOUIS JADOT CÔTE D'OR BURGUNDIES

Latricières-Chambertin Grand Cru 2010

93-95 POINTS

(100% vendage entier ; aged in 100% new oak until the first racking and now in 50% new barrels): Good bright dark red. Wonderful mineral tang lifts the complex aromas of raspberry, cherry, pomegranate, coffee, pepper and spices. Fat, sweet and deep, with the piquant minerality and a peppery element giving lift and energy to the middle palate. Notes of candied strawberry and raspberry are complicated by saline soil tones. Powerfully structured wine with long, bright finishing flavors that saturate the sides of the mouth.
