ZIND-HUMBRECHT

Pinot Gris Rangens de Thann Clos Saint

Urbain Selection de Grains Nobles Grand

Cru 2009

96 POINTS

Freshness boosts the glorious, sunny ripeness of the fruit, the sweetness of a fermentation that stopped at 12 percent alcohol and converted into sexy, saturated richness. The flavors are both delightful and profound, layering orange and peppermint, apricot and curry, lasting with buzzing energy that takes the wine out of the realm of dessert and raises it to its own context, a wine to enjoy anytime and anywhere.
