

Wine Spectator Insider

CROFT

Quinta da Roêda Serikos 2017

98 POINTS

Intense, featuring a rather dark persona, with baker's chocolate, Turkish coffee and steeped black currant notes taking the lead, backed by bitter plum and fig reduction flavors. A long tarry streak and a singed juniper accent show on the finish, ending with a pleasantly woody tug. A backward, grippy Port.

James Molesworth - October 23, 2019

