Falanghina Campania IGP 2019

89 POINTS

The 2019 Falanghina Rocca dei Leoni is fruit-forward and even a bit tropical, showing ripe mango, kiwi and hints of banana, balanced by pretty yellow florals. Round textures give way to a contrasting blend of acids and minerals, providing a tactile and cleansing sensation, which slowly tapers off to a note of sour citrus. This is a thirst-quenching Falanghina that is sure to win a lot of fans through the warmer months.
