LOUIS JADOT CÔTE D'OR BURGUNDIES

Bonnes Mares Grand Cru 2018

95 POINTS

A supple blueberry beauty, this hides a deeper drive behind that puppy fat, the structure of a long-lived Burgundy revealing itself over the course of a week. Jadot's 0.67-acre holding is all on the Chambolle side of the cru. A third of the vines are on Bonnes Mares' terre brune, providing the wine's coffee-ground concentration that turns toward a deep well of fruit. Floral elements emerge expressed in fruit from lighter terre blanche, higher up the hill. There's a lively back and forth as the elements grow increasingly knit.
