

FEUDO MACCARI

Mahâris Sicilia DOC 2017

91 POINTS

The 2017 Syrah Maharis hails from the calcareous soils of the Val di Noto. Here I'm finding a dramatic display of crushed blackberry, smoke and wild herbs, further evolving to show hints of plum and dark chocolate. It's silky in texture yet immediately firmed up with a display of tart black fruit accompanied by an orange zest twang, savory spice and zesty acids.
